RISK TOLERANCE / ASSET ALLOCATION

Unlike traditional planning methods that position you to experience the most risk you can tolerate, Wealthcare planning assumes you would prefer to avoid risk if possible. Based on your desire to avoid unnecessary investment risk, the portfolio that most closely approximates your ideal tolerance for risk is: Ideal Portfolio _____

Sometimes your ideal portfolio may be too conservative to produce returns that would enable you to meet your most important financial goals. If necessary, to manage financial goals you feel are critical, which portfolio has the most risk you could possibly tolerate? Acceptable Portfolio _____

Important Disclosures:

The results in the table above are materially affected by the capital market assumptions ("CMAs") used by Wealthcare Capital Management LLC ("Wealthcare"). Please note that the portfolio returns above approximate Hypothetical portfolios and do not represent actual returns of any Wealthcare Portfolios.

The target risk allocations illustrated are comprised of a mixture of domestic equities (all Large Cap), 10-year U.S. Treasuries and cash (3 month T-bill yield). This table is intended to help you select your target risk allocation. The actual implementation of your risk allocation - your asset allocation policy and active risk policy - is addressed elsewhere. Research has shown that risk allocation explains 75% or more of your investment experience (source: "The Equal Importance of Asset Allocation and Active Management," Xiong, Ibbotson, Idzorek & Chen, Financial Analysts Journal, March/April 2010. CFA INSTITUTE.)

Downside risk reflects the 95th percentile return. This measure of downside risk indicates that for any given 12 month period, only 1 out of 20 periods would, probabilistically, have a negative return in excess of the calculated 95th percentile downside risk statistic. It does not mean that an investor might encounter such a loss only once in 20 years. The Hypothetical Median Return is the median geometric return of the allocation. The Odds of Losing figure represents the chance of the allocation losing money in any given year. The Worst Return is the annual return the allocation has only a 1 in 10,000 chance to achieve in a given year. Return and risk of loss estimates are calculated based on return and risk assumptions anchored in historical market experience. NOTE: The highest hypothetical portfolio returns typically have the greatest risk of losses. Actual losses may be greater than illustrated.

The Exposure to Stocks figures reflect the percentage of equities in each portfolio. Not shown in the chart is the percentage in Taxable Bonds for Portfolios A through E, which, in descending order, respectively, are 65%, 48%, 33%, 18% and 0%, with the remainder of each portfolio, after taking the equity percentage into account, allocated to cash.

SAVINGS

To estimate the likelihood of meeting your goals, we need to know how much you are saving each year to your 401(k), SEP, 403(b), IRA, Taxable Accounts, Roth IRA and the like.
